

Dear Franconians,

I mentioned in the last Newsletter (Aspects of Franconia, page 7) a possible December trip to the DB Museum in Nuremberg. I can now give you details:

Rundgang: „Alle einsteigen – Führung zum Kennenlernen des DB Museums“
Datum/Uhrzeit: 10. Dezember 2017 von 14:00 bis 15:30 Uhr
Teilnehmer: 20 Erwachsene
RundgangsleiterIn: Luna Mittig
Führungsgebühr: 50,00 Euro zzgl. Museumseintritt
Bezahlung: am Besuchstag an der Museumskasse

What this means in financial terms is that if 20 people come along – which is very likely – each person would pay

Ermäßigter Eintritt*	5.00 €
Führungsgebühr	2.50 €
Trinkgeld	1.00 €
Total:	8.50 €

We should meet at the museum at 1.50 p.m. at the latest. Its address is: Lessingstraße 6 D-90443 Nürnberg.

I suggest you either take the train from Erlangen to the main station, or perhaps go by car to “Am Wegfeld” (Park and Ride on the B4), and from there take the tram to Plärrer. From Plärrer to the museum takes about 15 minutes on foot. If you wanted, you could take the underground to the Opera House. From there to the museum is an even shorter walk. This is an individual decision, but remember that traffic conditions in Nuremberg won't be easy!

After our tour we can have a snack in the museum restaurant.

It is essential that you register, as I must now know how many are coming, the maximum being 20 to 23 people, so please register as soon as you know whether you would like to join us.
